Bryan's Bits

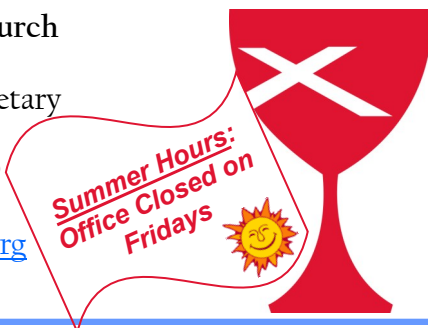

It is fully summer and that time to relax and be with family and friends are upon us! Sports abound as do all those running around vacation plans to be with those we love, it is a great time. Teresa and I have enjoyed time spent with family as well. Both sets of parents have visited and we had a great time with them. Life seems to run at a slow hectic pace this time of year. With church as well as your own time it is no different: We have our upcoming Fourth of July parade through the streets of Lincolnshire and need people to come and ride or walk along with our church float (my truck decorated up), Youth Mission Trip on July 7-13 (thank you for your kindness in our fundraising efforts - we exceeded our goal!!) and we have worship each week and our ongoing expenses to meet as well. I have found that things continue to roll on even in the dog days of summer. Remember that we continue to hold you up in prayer as you are far or near in your travels, we still hold you close to our hearts. Please stay in contact with the church through an email or a phone call or a look at the website and know that you are cared for and prayed for.

Blessings and see you soon.

Relax ♥ Rejuvenate ♥ Recaffeinate

Don't miss the July Women's coffee on Saturday, the 14th! We start at 8am at Einstein's on Milwaukee. It is free flowing - we come and go when we need to. This is such a great time to sit down, relax, and get to know one another better. Mark your calendars now before things get too busy. Come share some coffee and some laughs to start your day off right!

ALL I NEED TO KNOW I LEARNED ON THE CATTLE RANGE

1. Never slap a man who's chewing tobacco.
2. Never kick a cow chip on a hot day.
3. There are 2 theories to arguing with a woman...neither works.
4. Never miss a good chance to shut up.
5. Always drink upstream from the herd.
6. If you find yourself in a hole, stop digging.
7. The quickest way to double your money is to fold it and put it back in your pocket.
8. There are three kinds of men:
 - The ones who learn by reading.
 - The few who learn by observation.
 - The rest of them have to touch the electric fence to see if it's really on.
9. Good judgment comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgment.
10. If you're riding ahead of the herd, take a look back to make sure it's still there.

Mission Trip Sunday

Combined Service at 10am (no 8am service)

On Sunday, July 15 the leaders and youth from the 2012 Mission Trip will be leading the worship service. After the service, please join them for brunch as they continue sharing their pictures, stories and experiences with you.

Although you have already done so much to make this trip successful, if you would like to help with the brunch, it would be very much appreciated! The Mission Trip people will be tired from their journey and will also be participating in the worship service. Please sign up in Friendship Hall or contact the church office if you'd like to help out &/or attend.

*Blessed are those who are generous,
because they feed the poor.
~ Proverbs 22:9*

CCC members, friends and families attended a food-packing event at Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) on June 16. It was a great time and we even saw Michael Swartzentruber there as he was attending with his youth group. The next event at FMSC is October 6 and you can sign up by contacting the church office or by going to: <http://volunteer.fmsc.org/Register/Group/JoinGroup.aspx?gid=211260>

Independence and Freedom

Here comes that wonderful time of year when we celebrate our nation's birthday. We all clearly understand that this event means so much more than cook-outs and fireworks. Those who went before us fought and sacrificed dearly for the life we enjoy today. Because of their courage and dedication we enjoy a freedom that is definitely not universal.

It's also apparent that because we are Christians we too have enormous freedom and it was Jesus Christ who made the sacrifice for each of us. Our loving heavenly father extends great independence too. However, if you find that your "independence" has begun to separate you from our Lord it may be time to call on a Stephen Minister. The church office will be pleased to make the arrangements.
